

Jason Schultz
Senior Director, Instruction

Jason Schultz is the Senior Director, Instruction for Florida Virtual School® (FLVS®). In this role, he oversees the daily operations of instruction, including FLVS Flex, quality assurance, and all other instructional lines of business. As a member of the President & CEO's Senior Leadership team, he participates in the school's overall strategy, planning, and delivery.

Mr. Schultz began his career in education as a business education teacher and then moved into administrative roles including Dean, Assistant Principal, and Assistant Principal of Instruction. He joined FLVS in 2013 as an Instructional Leader/Principal and has since taken on the roles of Director of Instruction and currently, Senior Director of Instruction.

Mr. Schultz holds a master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction, and a bachelor's degree in Marketing from the University of Central Florida. He also holds Principal and Educational Leadership certifications.