

Mike Miller
Chief External Affairs Officer

Mike Miller is the Chief External Affairs Officer for Florida Virtual School® (FLVS®). He oversees the Governmental Affairs, Sales, and Partner Services, Florida Departments. He plays a vital role in managing advocacy for fair access to education.

Mr. Miller has a long career in public service, spanning nearly 30 years. Before joining FLVS in 2019, he was a State Representative for the Florida House of Representatives and worked with local leaders in both parties on issues to better the community. He served on various committees advocating for education and workforce policy as well as for victims of crimes or trauma, affordable housing for seniors and families, and homeless youth.

He currently serves on the boards of Goodwill Industries of Central Florida, the North and Central Florida Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, AMI Kids Orlando (an afterschool program for at-risk kids), and the Florida Network (a statewide association representing 29 agencies that serve homeless, runaway, and troubled youths and their families).

Mr. Miller earned a Bachelor of Science degree in American History from the University of Florida, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Crummer Graduate School of Business at Rollins College.
