

Erik Braun
Chief Administration Officer

Erik Braun is the Chief Administration Officer for Florida Virtual School® (FLVS®). In this role, he is responsible for overseeing the Curriculum Development and Enterprise Compliance teams as well as guiding the efforts of the FLVS Foundation.

Prior to joining FLVS, Mr. Braun served as Executive Director, Office on Homelessness at the Department of Children and Families (DCF) in Tallahassee. He previously served as its Director of Faith and Community Based Initiatives and worked with regional agencies and staff, and local providers to create and build faith-based partnerships in the community. Mr. Braun spent more than 20 years in leadership with local churches in Gainesville, Orlando, and Tallahassee.

Mr. Braun's skills and expertise include project oversight, organizational development, crisis management, and communications. He is a leader who also possesses skills in fundraising and capital growth, as well as relationship and team development.

Mr. Braun holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Florida and a Master of Divinity degree from the Reformed Theological Seminary.